

YELLOW FEVER.

Two Cases Are Reported at Oxford, Miss., by Dr. Gant.

Each Northbound Train From Jackson, Miss., Carries a Load of Refugees—The Infection in Lafayette County, Miss., About Run Its Course.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 19.—Advice from the south Sunday night indicated no material change in the yellow fever situation since Saturday night's report. Following is a resume of the reports received: Dr. Gant arrived at Oxford, Miss., Sunday, and after looking into the two cases of fever in the Jumper family said they were undoubtedly yellow fever. He also located several suspicious cases in the family of L. N. Wood. Oxford physicians do not agree with the board of health expert, they claiming that the cases are a malignant type of malarial fever. Dr. Price, of Raymond, Miss., reports that he has a patient who is suspiciously ill. An expert will be sent there Monday to diagnose the case. The investigation of the suspicious cases in Jackson continues and all suspects so far have been discharged. The patient, Manley, was resting easily Sunday night, but shows symptoms of black vomit. Each northbound train from the city carries a coach load of refugees. Dr. Murray declares that there is no fever at Pontotoc. Inspector Gant has investigated Water Valley and wires that there is no fever in the place. The infection in Lafayette county has about run its course and most of the patients are convalescent. One new case is reported from Taylors and three from Orwood Sunday. The general situation throughout Mississippi seems reassuring.

The situation at New Orleans is unchanged.

REV. DR. JOHN HALL DEAD.

The Eminent Divine, of New York, Dies at the Home of His Sister in Bangor, County Down, Ireland.

BELFAST, Ireland, Sept. 19.—Rev. Dr. John Hall, of New York, died Saturday morning at Bangor, County Down, Ireland. Dr. Hall was on his annual visit to Europe. He died at his sister's residence. His health has been broken down for more than a year. He had hoped to return to New York shortly, and had already engaged passage on a steamer for himself and his wife.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Dr. John Hall, who died Saturday in Ireland, was born in County Armagh, Ireland, on July 31, 1829. He was of Scotch descent. When 13 years of age he entered Belfast college, and was repeatedly Hebrew prize man. In 1849 he was licensed to preach and at once engaged in labor as a missionary in the west of Ireland. He was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Armagh in 1852 and in 1858 was called to the Church of Mary's abbey (now Rutland square) in Dublin. He received from Queen Victoria the honorary appointment of commissioner of education for Ireland. In 1867 Dr. Hall was a delegate from the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Ireland to the Presbyterian church in the United States, and after his return to Ireland he received a call to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church in New York. He accepted it and entered upon his labors in November, 1867.

A new church edifice was erected for Dr. Hall in 1875 at a cost of about $1,000,000, on the corner of Fifth avenue and Fifty-fifth street. He was selected chancellor of the University of the City of New York in 1882. His salary was understood to be $90,000. In personal appearance Dr. Hall was a remarkable man. MORE TROUBLE IN FORMOSA.

Another Formidable Rebellion Against Japanese Rulers Breaks Out—Many Killed and Wounded.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 19.—Mail advices from Japan state that another formidable rebellion against Japanese rulers has broken out in Formosa, this time in the southern part of the island. Two battles have been fought, one near Taichu, the other near Taihoku. The tribes were defeated by the Japanese troops and the police.

Many were killed and wounded on each side, but details are not obtainable. The rebellion is the outcome of an attempt by the Japanese administration to extend its jurisdiction over the semi-savage tribes living in the interior.

According to official reports a summary of rebellious outbreaks in Formosa during the last year shows that 42,000 persons were concerned in 1,700 attacks in different parts of the island. Five hundred persons were killed and wounded by these semi-savages, 1,500 captured and over 200 houses burned. Their booty was valued at 257,000 yen. On the other hand, 946 robbers were killed and 1,450 taken prisoners.

The camps to be inspected are at Fort Thomas, Lexington, Knoxville, Chickamauga, Anniston, Ala., probably Huntsville, and Jacksonville and Charleston. Secretary Alger expects to reach Washington a week from next Wednesday.

The emperors shook hands and kissed each others' cheeks three times. They then proceeded to the church, where Emperor William, in behalf of himself and the empress of Germany, deposited on the casket containing the remains of the late empress of Austria a floral wreath which his majesty had brought from Germany. The emperor dined at the German embassy after the funeral and started for Berlin Saturday evening.

Two Prisoners Burned to Death.

STAFFORD SPRINGS, Ct., Sept. 19.—Two prisoners confined for the night in the town lockup, Ernst Branford, aged 27 years, and John Marsh, aged 40 years, met their death Saturday in a fire which originated in the cell occupied by Marsh. Branford evidently died from suffocation, probably while asleep. Marsh's body was literally baked. They had been arrested for drunkenness.

Senor Silvela's Call.

MADRID, Sept. 19.—Senor Silvela, the leader of the conservatives, has issued a manifesto calling upon his adherents to use their efforts when peace shall have been concluded to place his party in power. FUNERAL MASS.

Imposing Ceremonies Commemorative of the Murdered Empress.

The President and Members of His Cabinet, the Ambassadors and Ministers of Foreign Countries and Members of the Army and Navy Attended.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—An imposing funeral mass commemorative of the murdered Empress Elizabeth of Austria, was celebrated at St. Matthews Catholic church Saturday, Cardinal Gibbons being the celebrant. The ceremony was official in character, under the auspices of the Austrian minister and among those in attendance were President McKinley and the members of his cabinet, the ambassadors and ministers of foreign governments in their brilliant diplomatic uniforms, representatives of the United States army, navy and supreme court, and a large gathering from private life. The Austrian minister, Mr. Von Hengelmüller, was attended by all the members of his staff.

CARDINAL GIBBONS.

the military attache, Baron Riedl, in the uniform of the Austrian imperial guard, and Capt. Rodler, naval attache, in the uniform of the Austrian navy, acting as ushers. Minister Von Hengelmüller wore the striking costume of the Hungarian "Magnet," denoting high diplomatic rank. It was of sombre black, satin coat, knee breeches and high boots and a heavy black velvet coat hung from the left shoulder. His sword, scabbard and hilt was hid with windings of crape. As the carriages of the president and cabinet reached the church, Mr. Von Hengelmüller left his pew and met the president at the church door, escorting him to a pew at the front at the right of the chancel. With the president were Secretaries Gage and Wilson, Postmaster General Emory Smith and Acting Secretary Ade. Back of them, as representatives of the army, sat two of the officers of Gen. Miles' staff, Col. Maus and Lieut. Col. Michler, in fatigue uniform, while the judiciary was represented by Justice Harlan, of the United States supreme court. Many other officers of the state, war and navy departments, also were present. The diplomatic corps occupied pews opposite those of the United States government officials. With the Austrian minister sat Ambassador Cambon, wearing the heavily gold-embroidered uniform of an officer of highest diplomatic rank, with a wide silk sash from shoulder to hip. He left his pew after the president and cabinet were seated, and crossing the aisle paid his respects to the president and cabinet officers. The German charge d'affaires, Baron Speck von Sternberg, with the German military, naval and civil attaches, in full uniform, the minister of Switzerland, where the assassination of the empress occurred, and the representatives of Russia, Norway and Sweden, Belgium, Denmark, Portugal, China, Japan, Turkey, Colombia, Venezuela, Costa Rica, Brazil, Peru, Chili, most of them in court and diplomatic attire, were present. In the absence of the British ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote sent a large floral cross of white roses and carnations, which was in the middle of the chancel facing the congregation. The embassy was represented by Capt. Paget and Mr. Young.

The church interior was simply arranged for the occasion. Back of the chancel hung long crape draperies, covering the windows and darkening the altar. The pulpit was draped with heavy bands of crape. Cardinal Gibbons was assisted in the mass by a large number of priests and acolytes, the usual rich vestments being put aside for those of black and white.

PLANS GREATLY CHANGED.

Instead of Evacuating Manila Insurgents Are Concentrating in Force at Santana—Aguinaldo Holds the Place.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The following dispatches were received Friday from Gen. Otis:

MANILA, Sept. 16.—Adjutant General Army, Washington. In my opinion, based upon present indications, no further force required. Insurgent leaders in politics and army in excitable frame of mind, but better portion amenable to reason and desire to make approved reputation before civilized world.

Otis, Commanding.

MANILA, Sept. 16.—Adjutant General, Washington, D. C.—Telegraphed situated briefly yesterday. Insurgents have acceded demand and evacuated entire city of Manila, except small force in one outlying district. No difficulty anticipated and no concessions made to them. They express strong desire to maintain friendly intercourse with United States government in all particulars. They organized congress Thursday at Malolos, about twenty miles north of city, to frame plan of government. Manila very quiet. Military government being perfected gradually and large force policing and cleansing city. Health of command satisfactory. Trade and commerce active. Treasury receipts since August 14, $540,000 Mexican current money. Philippines' monthly expenses will aggregate at least $350,000; nearly one-half required to subsidize 13,000 Spanish prisoners. Believe that receipts will largely exceed expenditures. Tariffs and duties imposed, as directed by president on July 12, but received as currency of country as on gold basis would almost double former Spanish duties. United States laws applied for admission of Chinese and opium; sales of licenses for lotteries and other pastimes, opposed by public morals, discontinued.

Otis, Commanding.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: The insurgents changed their plans Thursday night, and instead of evacuating all the suburbs of the city, as Gen. Otis ordered, they moved from Ermita and Malate to Santana, where they appear to be concentrating in strong force.

It is reported, although it has not been confirmed, that Aguinaldo has ordered that this place be held at any cost. It is more likely a move on the part of Pio Pilar to embarrass the dictator. The former rebel chief, Isabello Artacho, who was condemned to death by Aguinaldo for treachery in May and reprieved and escaped, is leading 15,000 men against Aguinaldo. Artacho is backed by priests.

A Jesuit priest was shot for persuading rebels to desert Aguinaldo's cause.

At the meeting of rebel leaders in Malolos the majority will vote for autonomy under American protection.

Coasting steamers are trading with the provinces under Spanish rule. Aguinaldo demands 50 per cent of freight receipts of steamers trading with the rebel provinces.

All Spaniards in the northern provinces are now prisoners. The rebels seized stocks and cash of the tobacco estates belonging to the Campana Tabacalera, in Cagayan province, and also those of Coprax in Samarines province. The losses are enormous.

The rebel steamer Bulacan has been sunk by a Spanish gunboat at Marbata.

Nine Were Drowned.

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—The steamship Gloucester, of the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Co., which arrived here Friday forenoon from Baltimore, reports that at 1:30 o'clock Friday morning she collided with the Gloucester schooner Alice Jordan off Martha's Vineyard, and that nine of the Jordan's crew were drowned. Seven of the crew were saved and brought here on the Gloucester.

Established a New Record.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 17.—A special train of an engine and four cars on the Chicago & Northwestern railway established a new record between Chicago and Omaha Friday, making the run of 493 miles in 8 hours and 29 minutes. It left Chicago at 9 o'clock Friday morning and pulled into the Omaha Union depot at 5:29 p. m.

Southern Road Branching Out.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 17.—It is rumored that the Southern railroad has about consummated plans to secure the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis railroad and the Kentucky and Indiana bridge in this city. The Southern will thus secure entrance to Evansville and St. Louis.

The Cunard line steamer Aurania, from New York on September 6 for Liverpool, has been reported off the south coast of Ireland, disabled and in tow.

ROOSTER SOLD AT $1,000.

A Texas Bird That Was Winner of Over $5,000 and Champion in Twenty-Seven Battles.

The celebrated gamecock, Commodore Wainwright, after his great victories at Hollettsville, Laredo, San Antonio and Caldwell, was sold in the cock pit on Gen. Perdue's ranch in Burleson county, Tex., for $1,000. Don San Diego Montemayo, a sportsman and chicken fancier of Monterey, Mexico, became the purchaser. The money was paid in gold, and while it was being counted out the victorious young rooster crowed lustily. His spurs were bloody from his recent victory and his feathers a little ruffled, but otherwise he looked as fresh as the proverbial spring chicken.

During the successful campaign which the game young Commodore has just completed he was entered in 27 mains and was the victor in every one. It is said that this bird has won more than $5,000 for his owner during his short career. He has fought his last battle, for, according to the terms of the bill of sale which the vendor gave to Senor Montemayo, the great bird is to be used as a breeder, the purchaser obligating himself never to fight the celebrated gamecock again.

This is believed to be the highest price ever paid for a rooster in Texas, but the price would not be regarded as startling in old Mexico, where victorious roosters have often been exchanged for herds of cattle, ranches and silver mines.

Atahualpa was the original pet name of this wonderful bird, and when he crowed he seemed to say it as plainly as ever a feathered youngster pronounced his own name. His trainer made him stand still in a gladiator attitude while the camera was turned on him, and when the snap shot was finished he seemed to understand that he was expected to crow, and then his admirers, all of whom were jingling Wainwright gold in their pockets, gave him a rousing farewell cheer.

Queer Streets of Manila.

The streets of Manila are so modern as to be quite out of keeping with the general appearance of the town. They are perfectly straight, macadamized, and provided with ample granite walks. Of these the Escomta and the Rosario are the best. In both these are excellent shops, kept principally by Chinese merchants, most of whom come from Amoy. Tin-roofed houses line each side of both thoroughfares.

Fires in London.

Of the 3,500 fires to which the London fire brigade was called last year, no fewer than 335 were caused by petroleum lamps.
